By A. F. MAHAN
Associated Press Writer
DETROIT (AP) — The big three automakers submit new contract offers Tuesday to the United Auto Workers union and the package may be the tip-off on whether there is to be peace of strife in the industry this year.

Peace will be indicated if the offers from General Motors, Ford and Chrysler include restoration of an unlimited cost of living wage escalator and a pension after 30 years service, regardless of age.

But unless these two items are included, or some indication given that they might be later, then a strike may be in the offing. The UAW says it is inflexible on these two items.

UAW President Leonard Woodcock reiterated in an interview Thursday he will not even put to a ratification vote any contract lacking an unlimited cost of living formula, such as prevailed prior to 1967.

He added that the new pacts must contain "30-and-out," the retirement plan.

In making Tuesday's offers, the companies will be rejecting another of Woodcock's demands: that they abandon what he calls "their lockstep approach of making simultaneous and virtually identical initial offers."

Union negotiators also have a convention mandate to get "a substantial wage increase," but this has not been spelled out in cents per hour.

Woodcock has said the companies only "would be getting warm" if they offered an 8 percent wage increase or 32 cents hourly. This is on top of a 26-cent or more than 6 per cent hike that becomes effective Sept. 15, the day after current three-year pacts expire.

The 26 cents is the difference between the 16 cents hourly which the workers got under the current limited cost-of-living escalator and the 32 cents which the old, quarterly adjusted, unlimited formula would have given them.

Ford withstood a seven-week nationwide strike in 1967 to win the limited formula, but finally agreed to provide on Sept. 15, 1970 the increases in wages or fringe benefits the unlimited formula would have provided.

The current average hourly wage of auto workers is $4.02. Automakers estimate fringes, such as pensions and insurance, add an additional $1.75 hourly to their labor costs.

Boy, 15, Wounded in Vietnam

FT. CARSON, Colo. (AP) — Walter Lee Martin is a twice-wounded veteran of two tours in Vietnam and is only 15 years old, says the U.S. attorney's office.

Martin of Dothan, Ala., 6 feet 3 and 190 pounds, joined the Army three years ago under an assumed name and went to Vietnam where he was wounded at the age of 13. His real identity eventually was learned and he was shipped home, according to Asst. U.S. Atty. James Richards.

Now, two years later, the Army has found that Martin somehow got back into its ranks under another alias. And, Richards said, Martin has been married for four months.

Sometime after being sent home, Richards said, Martin obtained the identification and orders of a S.Sgt. Albert Lewis Jr., got back into the Army and was shipped to Vietnam where he again was wounded.

He was sent to Ft. Gordon, Ga., to recover from his wounds. Apparently while on leave from Ft. Gordon, Richards said, Martin—still posing as Lewis—went home to Alabama and married.

Early this month, he was assigned to duty with the military police at Ft. Carson.

The real S.Sgt. Albert Lewis Jr. was in Vietnam where he re-enlisted and requested emergency leave home.

While drawing up a pay voucher for Lewis' leave, the Army apparently learned they were paying two S.Sgt. Albert Lewis Jr.s, Richards said. The Army notified Ft. Carson and Martin was arrested by the FBI and charged with a fraud on the government.

Richards said he would request that prosecution be deferred and that the probation department recommend a course of action. He indicated Martin may be placed on one year probation and sent home.

Integration Brings Some Violence

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A North Carolina school was bombed, armed demonstrators paraded in a small Georgia town and Virginia officials planned a possible U.S. Supreme Court appeal amid efforts to desegregate more Southern schools.

Damage was minor at the formerly all black Bullock School near Rocky Mount, N.C., where two dynamite blasts went off Thursday night. No one was hurt. Bullock is being combined with an all-white school in Edgecombe County, which opens Monday.

Several hundred blacks—some carrying holstered weapons—paraded Thursday night in Sparta, Ga., to protest a desegregation plan that retains both Hancock County high schools while concentrating white pupils in one. There are 2,300 blacks in the school system and 250 whites.

It was the sixth straight demonstration but there were no incidents or arrests.

Richmond, Va., officials in the meantime prepared to ask the Supreme Court to stay the city's court-ordered desegregation plan which calls for busing 13,000 of the city's 50,000 school children.

City Atty. Conard B. Mattox Jr. planned an appeal today to the 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals but officials doubted a stay would be granted. Mattox scheduled called for an afternoon trip to Washington for a final plea to the nation's highest court.

Richmond officials maintain the plan would bring chaos to the school system.

In Jackson, Miss., School Supt. John S. Martin resigned Thursday because of what he called "unremitting disruption" of education by federal courts. At the same time, the Delta Democrat Times in Greenville, Miss., reported that the segregationist Jackson Citizens Council had borrowed $600,000 from Jackson banks for private schools.

Schools opened without incident at Lamar, S.C., the scene of trouble last fall, but 500 white pupils boycotted classes.

Faubus Is Critical of Bumpers

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Thursday night that Dale Bumpers had spoken in generalities and had not faced the issues during the gubernatorial campaign.

Faubus' remark brought this retort from Bumpers: "His (Faubus') most famous quote is, 'Just because I said it doesn't make it so.'"

The former governor and Bumpers made the comments in separate interviews with newsmen as they campaigned among about 1,500 persons at a Forrest City barbecue. They did not cross paths during their handshaking rounds.

It was their first politicking since Tuesday's Democratic primary elections in which Faubus won one runoff spot and, according to complete and

ISRAEL WAR

The Israelis returned the fire, a spokesman said, but there was no indication of any Arab casualties.

On the diplomatic front, sources at U.N. headquarters in New York said they expected the Arab-Israeli peace talks which opened there this week to go on for months. But an Egyptian spokesman predicted today they would break down before the 90-day cease-fire period ends at midnight Nov. 5.

Egyptian Information Minister Mohamed Hassanein Heikal wrote in his semi-official Cairo newspaper Al-Ahram that it is impossible for the Arabs to modify their demand for total Israeli withdrawal from all territory captured during the 1967 war.

"And I can predict right now that the Israelis will say no when the withdrawal question comes up," Heikal declared.

One reason Israel could not agree to complete withdrawal from the occupied territory, he wrote, "is its knowledge that it will be leaving a fully rebuilt Egyptian army standing on the threshold of the electronic age, as well as Palestinian forces in possession of a new offensive weapon," the Soviet Katyusha rocket.

One diplomatic source at U.N. headquarters in New York estimated the talks would continue at least until the coming General Assembly session ends after Dec. 15, more than a month after the end of the cease-fire period.

Another source said the main effort now is to get the peace talks going well enough so that by the end of the 90 days, the truce will be extended.

Testimony in Tate Case Continues

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A wealthy middle-aged couple, far removed from Hollywood's glittering young social set, read curiously of the Sharon Tate murders before killers stabbed them to death in similar bizarre style, a witness testified at the Tate murder trial.

A news vendor, John Fokianos, said that the night Leno and Rosemary LaBianca were slain he chatted with them about the Tate killings. "It was the event of the day," he testified Thursday. "It was big news. They seemed quite interested."

Fokianos told newsmen later that Mrs. LaBianca "seemed quite emotional about it. She seemed quite upset because it was quite gruesome. The details naturally got to her."

Their chat was between 1 and 2 a.m. Aug. 10, 1969. The state says that about 2:30 or 3 a.m., the LaBiancas were killed by intruders.

Police testified similarities to the Tate killings led them to declare that these were "copycat" killings.

Charles M. Manson, 35, leader of a roving hippie-style "family," and three women followers, Susan Atkins, 21, Patricia Krenwinkel, 22, and Leslie Van Houten, 20, are on trial for murder-conspiracy in the five Tate slayings and the two LaBianca killings.

As witnesses described the death scene, Manson stared at his hands, and the girls whispered to each other. At one point, Miss Atkins held up a trial transcript cover. She had drawn on it in red ink picture of a clown with balloons.

unofficial returns, Bumpers won the other. The runoff is to be held Sept. 8.

"He'll be a formidable opponent," Faubus said of the 45-year-old Bumpers, a Charleston lawyer. "He speaks and projects well. But I don't think he has met any issues. He speaks in generalities."

Asked what support he expected from those who voted for losers in the preferential primary, Faubus said he already had picked up "some" votes from former state Rep. Bill Wells of Hermitage, James M. Malone Jr. of Lonoke, Speaker Hayes McClerkin of the Arkansas House and Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell, who still holds out hope of slipping past Bumpers and into a runoff with Faubus.

RUSSIANS Update Cong Air Force

SAIGON (AP) — The Soviet Union has built North Vietnam's MIG fighter strength to nearly three times its size at the height of the air war three years ago, U.S. military sources say.

The Soviets also have modernized the North Vietnamese air force with strong reinforcements of advanced MIG21 jets, rated a match for America's F4 Phantom fighters.

According to latest intelligence, the North Vietnamese now own more than 225 MIGs. They had about 80 in the fall of 1967.

Sources said the Hanoi command pulled back its MIGs from forward bases after losing a MIG21 five months ago while it was harassing a U.S. reconnaissance plane over North Vietnam. That was the 11th MIG claim by the United States since the start of the air war in early 1965.

The bulk of North Vietnam's air force now is deployed at four fields around Hanoi and the port of Haiphong.

The remainder—about 70 MIGs—were based in southern China, where much of the North Vietnamese air force took refuge during U.S. air strikes against North Vietnam.

The continued basing of North Vietnamese MIGs in China is regarded as an indication that Hanoi believes there still is a chance the United States might resume bombing of North Vietnam, although from the American side the possibility seems remote.

Reconnaissance photographs of MIG bases in North Vietnam provide evidence of other precautions. The North Vietnamese have built concrete shelters to protect their planes on the ground.

The Russians, who provide most of North Vietnam's more sophisticated military gear, have improved Hanoi's air force with more than 80 MIG21s. Three years ago, the North Vietnamese had only 17 of these advanced models.

Bill Fails to Cut Spending by Pentagon

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate refused today to clamp a spending ceiling on the Pentagon.

It defeated a request for a general $5.2 billion cut from President Nixon's defense budget of $71.2 billion.

Previously in the month-long debate on the $19.2 billion military procurement bill the Senate refused repeatedly to cut back spending for specific weapons programs.

Today, senators rejected an amendment by Sens. William Proxmire, D-Wis., and Charles Mathias, R-Md., to limit general military spending in fiscal 1971 to $66 billion, a 7 per cent across-the-board cut.

The vote to reject was 42 to 31. Proxmire and Mathias contended up to $14 billion could be cut from spending programs they labeled unnecessary at best and grossly wasteful at worst.

"You just can't stop the machine so fast in such a short period of time," said Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., in a counterattack.

Stennis, chairman of the Armed Services Committee, declared a cut of such size would mean eliminating more than two million jobs: a million in the defense industry and a million in direct Pentagon employment.

local officeholders. Asked if he saw any comparison between 1970 and 1964 when Orval Faubus, like Bumpers this year, was a political unknown, yet he forced Gov. Francis Cherry into a runoff and beat him. The implication was: Can Bumpers turn the same trick?

Faubus said that would depend on how Bumpers handles himself. Then he added, "I think that Gov. Cherry could have defeated me if he had known how to handle himself and the issues and had gotten people to work for him."

The implication was: Orval Faubus knows how to handle himself and the issue, and he will ask for help.

Faubus said he expects a smaller vote Sept. 8 and that he must pick up votes from defeated candidates and hold his own to win. He said he had been in contact with several of the defeated candidates.

Dear Helen: Marriage: five years ago. Children: two. But what kind of married life is it when your husband takes off any time he gets peeved?

Dave is gone again now, for the 12th time in five years. He said I bugged him, and he couldn't stand the pressure.

But: he comes by whenever he feels like it, takes us for a Sunday drive, out to a show. Then again, he'll call to invite us somewhere and never show up. The children are naturally upset by this uncertainty. So am I!

He has a girlfriend. He's always had a girl on the side, as he says he needs someone to talk to and he can't communicate with me.

I suggested that he either see a marriage counselor, or we talk to a lawyer. He vetoed both. Says he needs time to figure out what he wants in life. Isn't five years enough? —NOT GETTING ANY YOUNGER

Dear Not: Your husband has had time enough. What he needs now is an ultimatum! Tell him you want either a full-time husband and father for your children or a clean break, for you're through kow-towing to a married bachelor. —H.

Dear Helen:

As a volunteer aid in a local hospital, I have been particularly concerned over the problems of unwed mothers. It seems that so many want to keep their babies, but most have been talked into giving them away. The emotional upset of having your own flesh and blood taken from you because "it's for your own good" is enough to make one wonder what's happening in today's society.

Often a girl who gives up her baby regrets it deeply later on. Often she would have been able to support the child. Too late she realizes that a baby does not interfere with a good marriage.

Rather than getting all one-sided counsel, I think a girl should talk with unmarried mothers who have kept their babies—then make her decision. There shouldn't be a stigma attached to the illegitimate any more. That's for the 18th century. —K.A.

Dear K.:

The stigma is fast disappearing—but the problems of raising a child alone still remain. It's a tremendous decision—whether to give away or keep your baby—and many girls these days are deciding for the latter. The pressure toward adoption is not as great as it once was. —H.

Dear Helen:

I'm writing in regard to the person who said she was "inspected" by department store security guard. ("As an example," not through suspicion.)

My husband is security manager for a big chain. He and the general manager were shocked by this letter. It couldn't have happened as told except in a place where there are no regulations. Even so, this invasion of privacy should have been reported to the labor commission or other agency, even if it meant that the employee thus inspected lose her job.

Helen, before ANY person may be touched, a crime must be proven. Even then, the only person who is allowed to strip a suspect is the court matron at the police station.

Few realize the risks involved in retail security. No store can afford a law suit so the detectives must use extreme caution. My husband has handled people with knives, guns, narcotics, stolen cars, etc. He has had clothes ripped, been struck and threatened, yet he must be certain of guilt before acting. If the "inspector" really did strip store personnel, I hope the store is justly punished. —WIFE OF A DETECTIVE

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A tall, skinny guy in the white jeans and sports shirt lopes around the CBS rehearsal hall these days with a happy grin on his face. He is Jim Nabors, 15 pounds lighter, $100,000 poorer, but glad he survived his holiday from television.

"Come here, sit down and let me tell you about it," he ordered eagerly. "You just wouldn't believe."

He launched into a tale that would keep a soap opera in plots for six months.

When the final "Jim Nabors Hour" of his first CBS season was a variety star was taped, the pride of Sylacauga, Ala., hopped off on the first leg of a long anticipated trip around the world.

While over the Pacific, he was stricken with severe pains in the back. Doctors on the plane gave first aid but suspected something very serious, and Nabors stayed in the Philippines for further treatment. Feeling a little better, he flew to Australia, visiting friends Tommy Leonetti and his wife, where his ailment was diagnosed as an obscure type of virus infection.

"I felt a little better and I kept on going," Jim continued, "but I sure didn't think much about all those places, like Hong Kong."

Eventually, he got back home, still feeling rocky, but managed to pull together his part of the act that he and Carol Burnett were to present in the Nevada resort communities.

"Well, then I picked up some strep infection in my throat, and it was all swollen up," Jim said. "And to make things worse, I followed the doctor's instructions and took a pill that put me to sleep—and when I woke up my throat had closed and I thought I was strangling."

That also required first aid. But somehow Jim and Carol managed to finish their bookings.

"So I finally came home—and found that my house had burned down," he concluded. "Fortunately my mother, who had been staying there, had gone to visit my sister, and nobody was hurt. But I lost a lot of things that can't be replaced, like paintings and photographs. And I also discovered that I should have had about $100,000 more in insurance coverage."

In the course of all this Jim dropped 15 pounds the hard way and decided to keep a closer eye on his business affairs.

Now he is happily back at work for the new season with Frank Sutton, Karne Morrow and Ronnie Scholl.

Oakland A's Suffer Sixth Straight Loss

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Oakland A's have had their fireworks turned off but they'll have something new when they return home from a disastrous road trip—an exploding catcher.

As if things weren't bad enough for the A's, whose 6-4 loss to Baltimore Thursday night was their sixth straight since leaving home and dropped them 8½ games behind Minnesota in the American League West, the Oakland city fire marshal revoked the license of the company that handles the fireworks displays at the A's home contests.

The action was taken because of three grass fires during an Aug. 19 game caused by sparks from the fireworks, set off behind the center field fence.

The frustration of the winless road trip boiled over Thursday night when catcher Frank Fernandez fired his batting helmet onto the screen behind home plate and toward the press box to demonstrate his displeasure with a ruling by the official scorer.

Fernandez ripped a smash off third baseman Brooks Robinson's leg in the eighth inning but shortstop Mark Belanger recovered the ball and heaved it past first base. It was ruled a two-base error and Fernandez did his helmet-throwing act as he crossed the plate with the final run of the game.

He was thrown out of the game by umpire Larry Barnett, and, since the A's had used their other two catchers as pinch-hitters earlier, second baseman Dick Green had to finish up behind the plate.

In other American League action, Minnesota downed Boston 5-4 and Milwaukee blasted Cleveland 14-2.

In the National League, the New York Mets beat Atlanta 5-1, the Chicago Cubs defeated San Diego 5-1, Philadelphia turned back Cincinnati 6-3, St. Louis took San Francisco 4-1 and Houston edged Montreal 5-4.

Fernandez' eruption somewhat overshadowed Mike Cuellar's 20th victory for the Orioles and Frank Robinson's emergence from a lengthy batting slump.

Cuellar, who shared the AL's Cy Young Award last season allowed 10 hits, including a homer by Joe Rudi.

Robinson, mired in a 243 slump with only two home runs and 12 runs batted in since suffering a shoulder injury July 9, belted two tremendous homers and drove in three runs. Terry Crowley also homered for the Birds.

The race in the National League East tightened a bit as the Mets and Cubs won and both gained one-half game apiece on idle Pittsburgh. The Mets trail the Pirates by 2½ games, the Cubs are four back.

Jim McAndrew halted New York's three-game skid by firing a five-hitter at Atlanta. Donn Clendenon gave McAndrew all the runs he needed with a two-run double in the first inning off loser Phil Niekro, 10-16.

Milt Pappas hurled a six-hitter as the Cubs whipped the Padres on the hitting of Glenn Beckert, who had a double and three singles, and Billy Williams, who stroked two doubles and a single and drove in two runs. Nate Colbert homered for the Jokers.

It was a day of contrasts for the pitching Perry brothers. Jim, 19-11, hurled the Twins past the Red Sox and socked two doubles in the process. George Mitterwald homered for Minnesota. Rico Petrocelli for Boston.

Clayton, 17-13, was the loser as the Cardinals and Bob Gibson, 14-6, beat the Giants on a Cardinals' error in the eighth.

Tommy Johnson slipped a two-run homer and Grant Jackson added a 1-3 inning of scoreless relief in Philadelphia's victory over Cincinnati. Larry Hulse allowed two doubles for the Reds and one of them drove in a run in the fourth in-

Reasor Has Lead in Dow Jones Classic

By DAVE GOLDBERG
Associated Press Sports Writer
CLIFTON N.J., (AP) — Mike Reasor once caddied for Arnold Palmer and has learned a lot about golf from Billy Casper. But he's beginning his quest for the sport's richest prize by giving both of them a lesson.

Reasor, a 28-year-old former high school teacher in his second year on the PGA tour, fired a six-under-par 66 Thursday to take a one-stroke first round lead in the $300,000 Dow Jones Classic.

That was seven strokes better than Palmer for whom he caddied during the 1966 U.S. open in San Francisco, and four better than Casper, this year's leading money winner and the sport's third million-dollar player.

"He's been a great help to me," Reasor said of Casper, with whom he played 36 practice holes Tuesday.

One stroke behind Reasor were the veteran Paul Harney, a part-time touch player, and Terry Wilcox who shot a 67 over the 7,065-yard Upper Montclair Country Club course. Bobby Nichols, Bruce Crampton, Bob Lunn and George Archer were grouped at 68 with Jim Jamieson and Jim Ferrell, and ten more players had 69's, including PGA Champ Dave Stockton.

Most of the pre-tournament favorites were well off the pace. Casper was at 70 with Bob Murphy, who won the last tour tournament here two years ago; U.S. Open champion Tony Jacklin was at 71; Lee Trevino at 72; Palmer and Jack Nicklaus at 73; Dave Hill at 75, and Gary Player and Sam Snead at 76.

Reasor, who comes from Seattle but plays out of the PGA player's school at Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., has been on the tour for 15 months. But he won less than $3,000 last year and has only $6,400 this season.

His only victory came in the Manitoba Open on the Canadian tour, which earned him $1,200. He can win that much by finishing fifteenth in the Dow Jones, which has a first prize of $60,000.

Reasor played an errorless round in carding his 66. He had six birdies and was without a bogey as he consistently hit the greens close to the pine.

His introduction to big-time golf came in 1966 in San Francisco.

Washington, Buffalo Meet Tonight

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Buffalo Bills unleash their thundering herd in the Washington Redskins' happy hunting ground and Pittsburgh steels itself for a visit from the New York giants in pro football tonight.

O.J. Simpson and Max Anderson, a pair of foot-loose running backs, will no doubt test Washington's young and inexperienced defense when Buffalo meets the Redskins in RFK Stadium.

The Steelers, playing in their new Three Rivers Stadium for the first time, take on the Fran Tarkenton-less Giants in the other National Football League exhibition game.

It'll be a full weekend of football, with six games Saturday night, two Sunday and one Monday night.

On Saturday night, it's Chicago at St. Louis; Kansas City at Atlanta; Los Angeles at San Diego; Dallas at Houston; New Orleans vs. Boston at Jackson Miss., and San Francisco vs. Denver at Eugene, Ore.

Green Bay plays at Oakland Sunday afternoon and the New York Jets are at Minnesota in a unique Sunday night game. Philadelphia plays at Detroit Monday night.

Washington Coach Bill Austin, hoping to strengthen the up-front defense, said he would start a blend of rookies and young veterans.

"This line is young and has tremendous potential," Austin said. "The big thing is to instill confidence. For years the Washington defensive line has been downgraded so that they've almost begun to believe it."

In three exhibition games, two won by Washington, the Redskins' defense has gotten to the quarterback only three times, and has given up 345 yards.

Simpson is expected to start despite an ankle sprain suffered last week against Philadelphia. He's scored three touchdowns and rushed for 141 yards in Buffalo's three games, two of which the Bills have lost.

Anderson rushed for 68 yards and caught four passes for 84 more in last week's 35-20 victory over the Eagles.

Dick Shiner will probably start at quarterback for the Giants in place of Fran Tarkenton, who was injured.

The Giants have a 1-1 record and the Steelers are 1-1 in exhibition play.

Pittsburgh bounced back from a 16-10 opening loss to Miami with a 20-13 victory over Minnesota. Terry Bradshaw, Pittsburgh's No. 1 draft pick, went all the way in the Viking game and will start at quarterback tonight.

In off-field activity Wednesday, Green Bay released kicking specialist Mike Mercer, a nine-year veteran and Washington claimed Steve Wright, an offensive tackle waived by the Giants.

The Kansas City Chiefs put eight players on waivers, including defensive end Billy Bob Barnett, a third round draft choice from Texas A&M. Others waived were, defensive end Doug Chatman; wide receiver Len Crowley; tackle Charles Evans; linebacker Rayford Jenkins; running back Steve Kenmore; defensive end Troy Patridge and linebacker Melvin Rogers.

New Orleans released two rookies—guard Robert Rosh and tight end Fran Pilarcek.

Cisco, when he caddied for Palmer in the open in which Arnie lost a seven-stroke lead to Casper and the playoff the next day.

Reasor got to know Casper better the following year while he was a student, a golfer and an aspiring basketball player at Brigham Young.

Their formal introduction came when Casper came to the campus to address the student body. Since then, they've been close friends and Reasor is following Casper's path by preparing to become a Mormon.

W. Virginia Powerful Newcomer

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There's something old and something new in Eastern college football circles this season. Penn State, trying for an unprecedented fourth consecutive Lambert Trophy, has a surprise challenger in powerful West Virginia, one of three newcomers to the Eastern College Athletic Conference, Division I.

Penn State has had things pretty much its own way for three years in rolling up 22 straight victories and a 30-game unbeaten string, both longest in the nation at present. In addition, the Nittany Lions can post the longest unbeaten streak in the school's history by beating Navy in the Sept. 19 opener.

Ironically, Navy ended Penn State's other 30-game unbeaten string in 1922.

But now come the Mountaineers of West Virginia to try to throw a monkey wrench in the path of the Penn State express. They're fresh off a 10-1 season, climaxed by a Peach Bowl triumph over South Carolina.

West Virginia quit the Southern Conference a few seasons back and was just admitted to membership in the ECAC, along with William & Mary. Temple, formerly in Division II, has moved up a notch and is the other Division I newcomer, bringing the number of entries in the Lambert chase to 26 schools.

The battle royal could come on Oct. 31 when one other than West Virginia invades the Nittany Mountains to have it out with the Lions. Syracuse, Pitt, Army and Boston College, however, would like to think that their games with Penn State will decide the Lambert winner.

"We have much to accomplish," says Penn State Coach Joe Paterno, who lost 11 starters from the squad that demolished 10 regular season foes in 1969 and then downed Missouri in the Orange Bowl. It was the same story in 1968, except that the Orange Bowl victim was Kansas.

Seven of the departed starters were from the defensive unit that Paterno calls "perhaps the best in the history of college football."

The four returnees are good ones, though, and linebacker Jack Ham and back George Landis are solid all-star candidates.

"The pressure is going to be on the offense and the offense should be more wide-open this season."

Runs batted in—F. Howard, Washington 101; Killebrew, Minnesota 99.

Hits—Oliva, Minnesota 163; A. Johnson, California 155.

BATTING—Frank Robinson, Orioles, belted his 20th and 21st homers and drove in three runs in Baltimore's 6-4 victory over Oakland.

Saints May Be Title Contender

By JERRY ESTILL
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Is this the year the New Orleans Saints will go beyond being the best expansion team in National Football League history and become a bonafide title contender?

Heading into his fourth year at the helm of the young club, coach Tom Fears believes the Saints are better in practically every category and vastly improved in the secondary, where help was most needed to improve on last year's 5-9 record.

Only two of last season's holdovers, Elijah Nevett and Gene Howard, figure in the Saints' secondary plans this year and they may have trouble holding their jobs.

Joe Scarpati, a seven-year veteran acquired from Philadelphia in a trade, is one of the reasons for Fears' optimism about his new secondary.

Another reason is good performances from several newcomers, among them Hugo Holas, Dickie Lyons and Doug Wyatt. Delves Howell from Grambling, the Saints No. 4 draft choice, was showing signs of being the best defensive back in training camp before he was sidelined for several weeks with a broken hand. He's due back early in the season.

The Saints' strong suit last year was a running attack led by Tony Baker and Andy Livingston. Baker is 10 pounds lighter this year and running better than ever.

Livingston, however, underwent knee surgery before training camp opened. He is expected back at work after the first couple of weeks of the season, but the knee will be a question mark.

If Livingston quickly regains his old form—he was the team's leading rusher last year—the Saints probably will have one of the best running attacks in pro football.

Even without Livingston, the ground game should be far above average thanks to good work from Don Shy and backup men, Tom Barrington and Ernie Wheelwright. Rookie Jim Otis of Ohio State could help, too, although his preseason development has been hampered by lingering minor injuries.

Receiver Danny Abramowicz, the closest thing the Saints have to an established star, led the league in receiving last year and gives immediate quality to the receiving corps.

His running mate at the other wide flank is Al Dodd, fastest man on the team last year. Dodd was signed as a defensive back but switched to offense last year and developed quickly as a receiver.

Abramowicz and Dodd may be pushed by Ken Burroughs, No. 1 draft choice, from Texas Southern. At 6-foot-4 and 212 pounds, Burroughs has good sophomores.

Other Eastern standouts should be tackle Bill Moncevic, Holy Cross; split end Tony Gabriel, middle guard Ted Lachowicz and defensive back Tom Myers, Syracuse; guard Bob Johnson, Army; flanker Mike Siani, Villanova; defensive end Tom Vigneau, Buffalo; and rover Murry Bowden, Dartmouth.

Holy Cross will be returning to the football wars after losing its first two games a year ago and then canceling the rest of the season due to a hepatitis outbreak that struck the entire squad.

Two Hogs Injured in Practice

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Ronnie Bennett, a junior guard from Osceola, was injured Thursday during the morning workout of the Arkansas Razorbacks.

Bennett suffered a rib injury and was hospitalized for observation.

Coach Frank Broyles said he was not sure how long Bennett would be out, but "it could be as long as two weeks."

"He has a lot of experience," Broyles said, "more than anybody we have been working with."

Broyles said if Bennett did not come back before two or three days before the first game Sept. 12, "then he won't start in the first game."

Flanker Jim Hodge suffered a sprained ankle in the morning practice and did not take part in the second workout.

Sophomore tackle Glen Lowe of Richardson, Tex., lost 12 pounds during the morning practice and was held out during the afternoon drills.

All-American split end Chuck Dicus returned to practice Thursday after suffering a pulled leg muscle Wednesday.

San Antonio 9-8 Over Arkansas

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Bill Huisman provided the key blows as San Antonio scored a crucial 9-8 comeback victory over the Arkansas Travelers Thursday night.

Huisman, who stands 5-4, won the wild-scoring affair with a two-out shot in the eighth inning that knocked manager Ken Boyer's Travels out of the Texas League's Eastern Division lead.

Heading into the final 11 days of the campaign, Memphis leads Arkansas by a half game and San Antonio by four games.

Huisman, who also had a two-run double and a single, had to share honors with hurlers Dick James and Don Nottbart.

James got credit for his first win after four defeats. Nottbart got credit for his 13th save by pitching the ninth and allowing one hit.

The Missions, who had to overcome deficits of 6-0 and 8-3, collected 11 hits off starter John Schroepel and loser Dick Saminoff.

Germans May Snatch Davis Cup from US

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

CLEVELAND (AP) — They call one of them "The Sphinx" and the other "Herr Unpredictable" and together they make up West Germany's question-mark Davis Cup team that threatens to wrest the world tennis trophy from the United States in the challenge round starting here Saturday.

"These fellows are complete mysteries to us—we know little or nothing about them. We only know they are going to be very tough," says the U.S. non-playing captain, Ed Turville.

The "Sphinx" Christian Kuhnke of Hamburg, and the erratic one, Wilhelm Bungert of Mannheim, face America's Arthur Ashe Jr., and Cliff Richey in the opening singles matches on the fast artificial courts of the Harold T. Clark Memorial Stadium.

The order of the singles draw was to be determined at a noon drawing today, which offered Turville a chance to change the American line-up if he should so choose.

Strong pressure has been put on the captain to name Stan Smith, the 6-foot-4 mainstay from Pasadena, Calif., but indications were that Turville would be swayed by Richey's superior record this season. There was never any doubt about Ashe, a cup veteran who has an imposing 22-2 record in this international team competition.

Nobody knows how good the Germans really are. The two challengers, each 31, both businessmen who spurn the circuit and play only selected European events, have never faced any of the current members of the U.S. squad.

"They're quiet and like to be by themselves," says Fred Stolle, the three-time Wimbledon runner-up from Australia who coaches the Germans. "But they're terrific tennis players. I think we will win. I feel confident Kuhnke will take both his singles."

Kuhnke is the mystery man of the team. Son of one of Germany's leading industrialists, he got his higher education at Salem—the Eton of Germany—took three years off to get a law degree and returned to the competitive games seriously only a year ago.

"Christian never liked tennis. He always had something of an inferiority complex," a friend said. "Then he got his degree, his whole life changed. He returned to tennis with a vengeance."

However, he remains a loner. He disdains interviews, turning all questions over to a teammate, Ingo Buding.

A handsome, 6-2 bachelor who plays left-handed, he is a stylist with one of the most potent services in the game.

Bungert is cut from another bolt of cloth. A rangy, 6-2 right-hander, married with one child, he devotes himself to a prosperous sporting goods business and a tennis game that drives his supporters to distraction.

"You just can't tell about Bungert," says Stolle. "One day he will be brilliant—out of this world. The next he may be awful. You never know what he's going to do."

Bungert was a Wimbledon finalist in 1967, losing to John Newcombe in the last tournament before the event went open.

He and Kuhnke have collaborated in beating the Soviet Union, India and Spain in the last six weeks in Germany's first drive into the challenge round.

The Americans are favored although their overall record this season is unimpressive. Ashe has had a sore left heel and has won nothing of note. Smith, the nation's No. 1 player, has been bothered by a bad shoulder. Richey has beaten them both in major events, but is inclined to be intense and unreliable. Smith will team with Bob Lutz of Los Angeles in the doubles against Kuhnke and Bungert Sunday. The final singles in the best-of-five match series are scheduled Monday.

Mike Alvares Youngest Junk Pitcher

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) —Mike Alvares might be the youngest "junk" pitcher in baseball, but his assortment of slow curves, sinkers and screwballs has advanced Campbell, Calif., to the Little League World Series title game.

"About one out of six pitches I threw were fast balls," the 12-year-old Alvares commented, after hurling Campbell to a 2-1 victory Thursday over Chinandega, Nicaragua, in an error-filled game.

Campbell will face powerful Wayne, N.J., in Saturday's 2 p.m. (EDT) title game. Wayne scored four runs in the fourth inning Thursday, then coasted behind Craig Kornfeld's two-hit pitching for a 4-0 win over Highland, Ind.

Saturday's game will assure the United States of a Little League champion for the first time since 1966. Japan won the title in 1967 and 1968, while Taiwan won last year.

The most lush and varied forest in the United States is in the southern Appalachians, centering near Chattanooga, Tenn.

Calif. 500 Championship Race Today

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — With one day of practice remaining, half a dozen drivers share the role of favorites today for the important pole position in the $750,000 California 500 championship race.

The 33-car field will be put together in time trials Saturday and Sunday, with Saturday's fastest driver earning the No. 1 starting spot and at least $12,000 in cash.

Two drivers, Joe Leonard of San Jose, Calif., and Al Unser of Albuquerque, N.M., head the list of pole candidates. They are teammates in a pair of metallic

Gretel II Meets France

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The Australian yacht Gretel II meets the French yacht France today in what could be the wind-up in their America's Cup trial.

Gretel II holds a 3-0 lead in their best-of-seven series to decide a challenger for the cup finals, starting Sept. 15, and is favored to sweep.

In a last-ditch effort to win, Baron Marcel Bich, president of the challenging French syndicate, said he would take the wheel of France himself.

Intrepid, raised from the mothballs after winning this cup in 1967, continued to dominate Valiant Thursday in the American trials. Intrepid scored her fourth straight victory over Valiant, winning by 40 seconds in a race shortened by a dying breeze on the last leg.

Intrepid led at every mark of the course and appeared to be on the way to her widest margin blue Johnny Lightning Specials owned by former Indy winner Parnelli Jones.

Leonard, 36, had the top lap over the 2.5-mile speedway before today's final practice runs. Leonard was clocked at 177.2 miles an hour in his turbo-charged Ford. Unser was second best at 175.8 m.p.h.

School Bus Construction Said Faulty

WASHINGTON (AP) - Economy practices in school bus construction may save $350 worth of nuts and bolts but cost the lives of children, says the National Transportation Safety Board.

The board said the use of too few fasteners causes school-bus bodies to disintegrate in crashes, contributing to injuries and deaths.

The report Wednesday was based on investigations of fatal accidents at Decatur, Ala., in 1968. Accidents at Waterloo, Neb., and Atlanta, Ga., also were mentioned in the findings.

It said that between two and five times as many rivets, bolts, screws and welds should be used to fasten pieces of school-bus bodies to one another and to the frame.

Such reinforcement of existing buses would cost about $350 each, it said.

The board, a unit of the Department of Transportation, urged manufacturers to "adopt a policy of using fastening methods which inhibit the raising of sharp edges" as well as tightening joints.

Computer May Aid Heart Patients
WALNUT CREEK, Calif. (AP) — Three scientists have created a computer about the size of a deck of cards that they say may save thousands of lives by warning heart-care patients of possible trouble.
The device, called VIDA—Ventricular Impulse Detector and Alarm—gives off a loud beep when a patient's heart produces "ectopic" beats, a sure sign of usually fatal heart fibrillation that causes the heart to stop pumping.
Once the alarm sounds, patients have about three days to get medical attention, the inventors say.
Creators of the shirt-pocket computer are Dr. John W. Gofman of San Francisco, and two California electronics specialists, Robert L. Chapman of Danville and Richard D. Lawhorn of Castro Valley, who have set up offices in this San Francisco-Oakland suburb.
"It's really tragic to realize that many people die from temporary heart fibrillations," Chapman said in an interview.
He said the device is attached by two electrodes to the chest. A special circuit protector prevents possible false alarms.

Ask a young person aged 14 to 25 what he wants to be and chances are he'll want to become a teacher.
That was one of the findings of the National Gilbert Youth Poll when it asked 3,000 young people across the country what career objective they had in mind. "Teaching" was the most popular single response, favored by 17 per cent of the youths polled.
Another conclusion was that females, despite the pressures exerted by the Women's Liberation Movement, still chose such traditional female occupations as secretary (13 per cent), nurse (7 per cent) or homemaker (8 per cent).
There were decided preferences related to certain age groups. For example, those respondents younger than 18 seemed to favor professional careers, such as medicine. (Eight per cent of those 18 or younger chose medicine, which was selected by only 3 per cent over-all.)
They also indicated a slightly greater interest in business than the other age groups. However, they also accounted for the highest percentage of "undecided" respondents (19 per cent).
Those respondents older than 18 preferred such career objectives as government service, education and the skilled trades. Those respondents attending college indicated decided preferences for the professions (30 per cent) and education (32 per cent).
Asked whether they were primarily interested in making money, achieving fame or helping mankind, 47 per cent said they were primarily interested in making money. Running a strong second was the desire to benefit mankind (36 per cent) and last was the desire to be famous (12 per cent).
Forty-three per cent of the young ladies desired to benefit mankind, compared to only 30 per cent of the males. The males revealed a more practical bent, 54 per cent of them preferring a money-

The Basic Side

IT'S that time again... the time that challenges anew an army of vigorous American youth to the task of preparation in basic education that will equip them with know-how for their tomorrows. Here young minds fresh from their bowl of wheaties, assemble for classroom and playground training. Dear Teacher, responsibility lies heavy on your shoulders. Don't forget that along with reading and writing and aithmetic — lessons in how to live God's way are needed. Teachers and students alike have God to honor and your country to save right there in your classrooms. Always remember, "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver."

Proverbs 25:11. Blending of the academic with the spiritual lessons of Jesus, the greatest teacher, offers a moral and spiritual constitution possessing all the qualities basic in life.

Notre Dame Has Usual Players Back

By MIKE HARRIS
Associated Press Sports Writer
SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Notre Dame has its usual host of stars back for 1970, but Ara Parseghian faces a rebuilding job of major proportions on his offensive line.

The Irish move into the 1970 campaign with a group of established players, including quarterback Joe Theismann, guard Larry DiNardo and defensive back Clarence Ellis, both All-American candidates, split end Tom Gatewood, linebacker Tim Kelly and defensive end Walt Patulski.

However, Parseghian, in his seventh years as Notre Dame head coach, will have to come up with some surprises in replacing captain and center Mike Oriard, All-American guard Jim Reilly, starting tackles Jerry Brennan and Chuck Higgins, and tight ends Dewey Poskon and Tom Lawson, who shared starting honors.

The problems in the offensive line mounted during spring drills when five possible starters received knee injuries. To harbor any thoughts of equaling last year's No. 5 rating in The Associated Press Football Poll, several of these youngsters will have to play.

"Mike Martin (a 6-4, 250-pound junior tackle) and Jim Humbert (a 6-2, 225-pound junior guard) could certainly help if they're healthy," Parseghian commented. Both are recovering from knee surgery.

However, Parseghian isn't certain of any help. He says, "an offensive lineman has to have a certain skill that comes only by experience."

In the offensive backfield, senior Theismann will be in charge.

In 14 games as a starter, Theismann has gained 2,619 yards to rank fourth on the all-time Notre Dame list for individual offense.

The rest of the backfield should be sound, if not speedy, with 1969 starters Bill Barz at fullback and Denny Allan and Andy Huff at the halfbacks.

Junior split end Tom Gatewood is expected to team up with Theismann again this season as Notre Dame's top aerial threat. He'll have help at his split end position from junior Bill Trapp and sophomore Willie Townsend.

Another outstanding sophomore, tight end Mike Creaney, may solve the problem at that extremity.

The defensive line lost only one performer from last year's starters, but the loss of Mike McCoy is a sizeable one from any standpoint.

However, the Irish may have the answer to filling the shoes of the 6-5, 270-pound tackle in 6-5, 245-pound sophomore Greg Marx, who missed last season with a broken arm suffered four days prior to opening day.

In his six years at Notre Dame, Parseghian has run up a 48-9-4 record, including 8-2-1 in 1969. Notre Dame fans are hopeful of another successful season and another bowl visit in 1970, but Parseghian is noncommittal.

"We don't like to talk about bowls before the season even begins, but we would have to have a winning season like 7-3, 8-2, 9-1 or 10-0 to even consider it," he said. Another problem this year is that the academic structure here has been changed. We would have to be practicing in December while final examinations are taking place."

Parseghian left some room to maneuver though, saying, "Of course we could probably work out the problems if we have a good record, the bowls want us and the administration wants us to go."

The schedule, as usual, is a tough one, including Purdue (the Boilermakers have beaten the Irish three straight), Michigan State, Army, Navy, Georgia Tech and Southern California, as well as newcomers to the Notre Dame schedule, Missouri and Louisiana State.

Aussies Dominate Seedings

By KAROL STONGER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Australians dominate the seedings for the U.S. Open Tennis Championships but a singles match between America's No. 1 doubles team will be the one to watch in the early stages of the event beginning Wednesday at Forest Hills.

Rod Laver, the defending champion, was seeded No. 1, followed by countrymen John Newcombe, Ken Rosewall, Tony Roche and Roy Emerson.

In the drawings staged Thursday in the Indonesian Lounge at the United Nations, interest centered around the first-round men's singles match between No. 11 Stan Smith and unseeded Bob Lutz.

Smith, 24, of Pasadena, Calif., and Lutz, 23, of Lancaster, Pa., are both members of the U.S. Davis Cup team and attended the University of Southern California.

HOPE (ARK.) STAR, Printed by Offset

They teamed for Challenge Round victories in the Davis Cup both in 1968 and 1969 and have taken doubles honors both in the United States and abroad in the last two years.

Other seeded players include Andres Gimeno, Spain, 6; Arthur Ashe, Gum Springs, Va., 7; Roger Taylor, England, 8; Tom Okker, Netherlands, 9 and Cliff Richey, San Angelo, Tex., 10.

The men's list of seeds was extended to 20, past the customary 16 because, said tournament chairman Joseph F. Cullman III, "the field is so strong that to limit the list would unfairly exclude players with outstanding records."

Australians dominate the women's seeds, too, with Margaret Court, defending champion who is trying for the second Grand Slam in the history of women's tennis, No. 1.

Rosemary Casals, San Francisco, is No. 2 and Nancy Richey, San Angelo, Tex., No. 3.

Rounding out the women's seeds are Francoise Durr, France, 4; Virginia Wade, England, 5; Karen Krantzke, Australia, 6; Kerry Melville, Australia, 7, and Judy Dalton, Australia, 8.

The Freedom To Read

The executive board of the American Library Assn. has taken the correct position in denouncing efforts by federal investigators who have been snooping around libraries to see who was reading what books. In an advisory statement to libraries across the country, the library association's executive board recommended that library officials:

• "Formally adopt a policy which specifically recognizes its circulation records to be confidential in nature.

• "Advise all librarians and library employees that such records shall not be made available to any agency of state, federal or local government" except where specifically authorized under the law.

• "Resist the issuance of enforcement of any such process, order or subpoena until such time as a proper showing of good cause has been made in a court of competent jurisdiction."

The statement of the executive board was motivated by the attempts by U. S. Treasury agents in several cities to identify the readers of library books on explosives and on other subjects which the investigators considered militant and subversive. This smacks of tyranny — the tracking down of free citizens on the basis of what books they read.

The library association's board said "the efforts of the federal government to convert library circulation records into 'suspect lists' constitute an unconscionable and unconstitutional invasion of the right of privacy of library patrons and, if permitted to continue, will do irreparable damage to the educational and social value of the libraries of this country."

We agree. With wire-tapping devices, and computers that store a vast quantity about our personal lives, and "no-knock" proposals, this country seems to be moving in the direction of a Big Brother-like police state. We don't believe this is what the majority of our citizens want.

In our systems of government, the individual remains supreme, and the individual citizen has a freedom of action and thought which must not be curtailed. As never before, we must keep in mind the admonition of the author of our Declaration of Independence, Thomas Jefferson, that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." — Houston (Tex.) Chronicle

Showers Seen for Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Some showers and thunder-showers will drift into Arkansas this weekend, however temperatures will be somewhat warmer than they have been recently.

A warmer air mass will push temperatures into the low 90s and night temperatures will rise as much as eight degrees. Ground fog has been reported in low lying areas in the river bottoms due to the warmer temperatures and the U.S. Weather Bureau has warned motorists to be alert for limited visibility.

Highs through Saturday will be in the low and mid 90s. The lows tonight will be mostly in the upper 60s and low 70s.

Highs Thursday ranged from 96 at Fort Smith to 88 at Texarkana.

Arkansas 4th in Rehabilitation

This was the third consecutive year that Arkansas has ranked fourth, according to the Social and Rehabilitation Service in Washington.

Reassuring South Korea of continuing U.S. support is a major goal of Vice President Agnew's Aug. 22-30 Asian tour, his second visit to the area this year. Also on the schedule are Taiwan, South Vietnam, Thailand and possibly Cambodia.

AGNEW IN ASIA

Agnew Made No Cambodia Commitment

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

BANGKOK (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew arrived today in Bangkok, last stop on his Asian tour, after a stopover in Cambodia during which he said he "made no commitments whatsoever."

"My conversation was extremely guarded in that respect," the vice president told newsmen after his visit of just under five hours to Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital.

Agnew said he made clear to Cambodian Premier Lon Nol that although the United States is willing to give him arms and economic aid, it wants to keep from becoming "militarily involved." But Cambodian officials were reported highly pleased by the visit, even if it results in no major increase in U.S. aid.

The vice president's visit was the clearest demonstration to date of American support for Lon Nol's regime, and the Cambodians viewed it as a tremendous psychological boost, both at home and abroad.

Agnew said Lon Nol's requests for additional arms aid beyond the $40 million Washington announced this week were "extremely modest," and he declared: "I see no prospect for our sending military advisers" into Cambodia.

Agnew said Sunday en route to Asia that the United States would do anything it could to help Lon Nol's government. But today he said he told the Cambodians at the start of the meetings "we wanted them to understand we did not want to become militarily involved in Cambodia."

The vice president flew to Phnom Penh from Saigon, where during an overnight stop he talked with South Vietnamese and U.S. officials.

"There is just amazing progress since my last visit," Agnew said, comparing the briefings with those he received on a visit to Vietnam on New Year's Day.

He said he could not state what troop withdrawals might take place after next spring, when the total of U.S. forces is scheduled to drop to 284,000 from a high of 549,000. But he indicated some U.S. troops may be needed in Vietnam for some time.

Two Killed in Army Arsenal Explosion

RADFORD, Va. (AP) — The Radford Army arsenal was rocked early today by an explosion that killed two employees, injured four other persons and caused an estimated $200,000 damage.

The explosion and fire occurred shortly after the third shift had gone on duty at midnight. Officials said a 25-by-60-foot building was destroyed.

The plant is operated under government contract by Hercules, Inc. Plant officials said an investigation is under way to determine what caused the explosion.

Nixon Left With Wide Latitude on Cambodia, Intentions Unclear

WASHINGTON (AP) — State-ments by administration officials on Cambodia in recent days have left President Nixon with wide latitude for future U.S. activities there. But how deeply he intends to commit the United States remains unclear.

Administration critics fear the U.S. commitment to Cambodia is deepening much as it did in Vietnam in the 1960s.

They point to the new $40 million military assistance pact, intensified U.S. air strikes and statements from high officials like Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, who said, "We're going to do everything we can to help the Lon Nol government."

Administration officials, however, insist there is no commitment. They say the reason for helping Cambodia is not to keep the present government in power but to protect American forces in South Vietnam and to assure the success of the Vietnamization program for turning the fighting over to the South Vietnamese so American troops can come home.

Whatever the rationale, the events of recent days would appear to indicate the creeping commitment to keep the Lon Nol government in power and the Communists out of Cambodia.

On his first Asian trip, seven months ago, Agnew predicted the policy of non-involvement "in any other combat activities" in Southeast Asia unless the President and Congress agree the situation was "very extreme."

Sunday, while returning for his second Asian visit, the Vice President declared "the whole matter of Cambodia is related to the security of our troops in Vietnam."

Folks From 40 to 65 Years Old Earn Half of National Income

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The 50 million middle-aged Americans between 40 and 65 make up only a fourth of the population, but they earn more than half the national income, own more than half of the stock in all U.S. corporations, account for 40 per cent of the female labor force, and vote more than any other age group.

So how about a National Middle-Age Day to salute them?

One of the most restricted groups of people on earth are the 100,000 Chinese who live aboard fishing and cargo junks in Hong Kong harbor. Many spend their entire lives aboard these picturesque vessels without ever stepping ashore.

Businessmen's conventions are no longer stag sprees. Some 2,825,000 delegates attended 829 conventions in New York City last year, and 60 per cent of the men brought along their wives.

Sleep doesn't come cheap in this country. We now are spending more than $80 million annually for sleeping pills and portions of all kinds—plus millions more for such sleeping aids as ear plugs, eye masks and me-

Would Relax China Trade Restrictions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is taking another small step to ease trade regulations with Red China, officials said today.

The State Department is dropping a long-standing requirement that free-world ships engaged in trade with China may not use bunkering or fueling, facilities owned by American firms unless a check shows the ships are not carrying strategic goods.

The move is a relatively minor one. The old regulation was described as a nuisance to U.S. firms, and easing it is expected to allow them to compete with other countries for ship-fueling business.

The relaxation also fits in with the Nixon administration's over-all effort to improve relations with Communist China and with its steps over the past year to loosen trade and travel restrictions.

But the general Washington-Peking political relationship continues almost stationary. U.S. officials said the Chinese have yet to set a date for the next American-Chinese ambassadorial meeting at Warsaw, despite U.S. interest in holding more sessions. The last one was in February.

The bunkering regulation was part of the embargo against Red China and Communist North Korea dating back to the Korean War. It applies to ship-fueling facilities in the Pacific and Indian Ocean areas.

Bumpers Is Winner by 1,950 Votes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — With all of the state's 2,787 Democratic precincts reported, Dale Bumpers edged Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell by 1,950 votes to win a position opposite former Gov. Orval E. Faubus in the Sept. 8 runoff for the Democratic nomination for governor.

According to complete but unofficial returns, Bumpers had 94,962 votes and Purcell had 83,012.

The official tabulation, however, will not be known until after today's certification of votes by Democratic committees in each of the counties.

Bumpers has refused to claim victory over Purcell and Purcell has not conceded defeat.

Purcell said his campaign workers had found mistakes in tabulations and expressed hope that he still might edge into a runoff spot with Faubus.

Jerry Pinson, Purcell's campaign manager said Thursday night that Purcell would have no comment about the primary until after the votes are certified.

Bumpers and Faubus have already begun making plans for the runoff campaign. Each appeared Thursday night at a barbecue in Forrest City.

Faubus also scheduled a 30-minute television appearance on eight stations Sunday night, and he has a news conference planned for 2 p.m. Saturday at his headquarters.

According to unofficial returns, Faubus received 156,430 votes.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Thursday night that if Dale Bumpers doesn't think busing as a desegregation device is an issue in the runoff primary for governor, he (Bumpers) should "define what it is."

"If anyone doesn't think it is an issue, you go out and talk to some of the parents who are involved," Faubus said during taping of a Challenge '70 television program which will be telecast Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Bumpers, who was a surprise second place finisher in Tuesday's preferential primary, said earlier that busing was not an issue because all candidates agreed on opposition to it.

Three Arabs and one Israeli soldier were killed in a clash between an army patrol and a band of guerrillas near the Israeli border settlement of Kfar Ruppin, in the Jordan River valley, the military command said.

Another Israeli soldier was wounded near the Lebanese border when guerrillas fired on his vehicle near the settlement of Misgav Am. SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. command announced today that 4,008 American helicopters have been lost in the Vietnam war and 4,152 Americans were killed or presumed killed in them.

Informed sources estimated the worth of the helicopters at more than a billion dollars, based on an average cost of roughly $250,000.

The U.S. Command's weekly summary of aircraft losses said 4,004 helicopters have been lost to all causes in North and South Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia since Jan. 1, 1961. A spokesman said four more were shot down over South Vietnam Wednesday and Thursday, bringing the total to 4,008.

U.S. headquarters said 1,736 of the helicopters were shot down in South Vietnam, 23 in Cambodia, 10 in North Vietnam and nine in Laos. Another 2,230 were destroyed as the result of rocket, mortar and other attacks on the ground, mechanical failures, air collisions and pilot error.

The U.S. Command said of the 43,418 Americans killed in action through last Saturday 2,368 died in helicopters hit by enemy fire and another 1,740 were killed in helicopter accidents. In the two helicopters shot down this week, six Americans were killed and 30 others are missing and presumed dead.

The Army, Air Force and Marines have more than half a dozen types of helicopters operating in South Vietnam. They range from the tiny OH6 observation craft to the 88-foot-long HH33, the Jolly Green Giant whose primary function is rescue and recovery.

The command noted that more than 4,000 American helicopters are operating in Indo-China, flying an average of 10,000 hours per day and frequently are exposed to both enemy fire and excessive wear.

The summary of aircraft losses also listed 1,388 fixed-wing planes shot down in the war, and another 1,801 lost to other causes. The command said 1,025 Americans have been killed aboard fixed-wing aircraft hit by enemy fire and another 672 U.S. servicemen have been killed in plane accidents.

On the battlefields, the U.S. Command said, action "continued light and scattered throughout the Republic of Vietnam during the past 24 hours, with no major ground contacts involving U.S. forces. Enemy-initiated activity against U.S. forces was confined to light ground action and attacks by fire," meaning rockets and mortars.

The command reported 11 enemy rocket and mortar attacks from 8 a.m. Thursday to 8 a.m. today and said 14 Americans were wounded.

The situation was even quieter in Cambodia, where Vice President Spiro T. Agnew paid a visit of nearly five hours to Phnom Penh.
